ONE PICTURE IS WORTH A THOUSAND HAMBURGERS

Wendy's has discovered there's an art to selling hamburgers. When Wendy's in Cincinnati decided to help local artists, they developed a calendar which featured paintings of scenes of the city, like the one pictured here. The calendar was sold for $1.19 in 26 of its Cincinnati restaurants. Wendy's donated 10¢ to the Cincinnati Commission on the Arts for each calendar sold. The calendar sales improved Wendy's image in the community and produced $2,000 for the Commission.

From Wendy's to Flanigan's Furniture Inc., the Business Committee for the Arts is helping companies of all sizes discover that supporting the arts can paint a nice picture for their business. The Business Committee for the Arts can show you how collaboration with the arts can enhance your company's image, benefit your employees, and offer tax advantages. Call them.

You'll find your interest repaid a thousand times.
